CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20505

Colonel Roy C. Tucker, Jr.
Commander, Office of Special Investigations
Department of the Air Force

Dear Colonel Tucker:

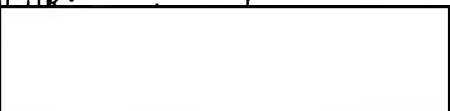

It has been brought to my attention that you will be retiring at the end of this month after more than two decades with the Air Force Office of Special Investigations. During this period this Agency has enjoyed a close and productive association with you and your service. The assistance which you and your organization have provided to the achievement of our common goals has been exceptional.

Agency officers who have dealt with you and the members of your organization, both in the field and at headquarters, have always relied on your complete willingness to cooperate in furthering the national interests.

May I take the occasion of your retirement to express my esteem and that of my colleagues for the contribution which you as Commander of AFOSI have made to the nation. It has been consistent with the integrity, discipline and spirit characteristic of the AFOSI tradition, and reflects favorably upon yourself, your organization and the United States Air Force.

We wish you every good fortune in the coming years.

Faithfully yours,
